Alpe d'Huez France

A cosy refuge high up in the Grandes Rousses mountains, the Alpe d'Huez Resort is an exceptional spot which guarantees unforgettable snow experiences. This renovated and expanded Club Med Resort benefits from sun-soaked ski slopes with the largest variety of altitudes in the Alps. Put on your skates and glide around the ice rink in the heart of a bustling ski resort, or try out skijoring, pulled by a horse. Enjoy a local saucisson and a glass of white wine(1) in the contemporary ambiance of the le Pic Blanc restaurant.

This document is a proposal and no vacations has been booked yet. Your Club Med proposal is subject to the General Information and Booking Conditions in the Club Med Brochure and any erratum ("the Booking Conditions") valid at the time of booking. Details can be found on our website www.clubmed.com, at the back of our current brochure or from one of our Personal Travel Advisors. The price quoted is based on the details of the participants as set out above in the document (number and age of participants) and/or the holiday (i.e. destination, dates, services, room categories and occupancy). If any of these details are modified, this may cause a change in price. Club Med will be happy to re-quote if your requirements change. This proposal does not guarantee the price or the availability of the availability of the holiday, which is only confirmed when your booking is accepted by Club Med.
